6. Unfinished business:
  - Caitlin: met with Rob- will do video. Should shoot this week; will have it by our next meeting.
7. New business:
  - Chick-fil-a- permission to come do information tables; we will order a few more give-away things; we have a tablet and a phone; can set up to play video on loop and we can register people- tablet. Have cards and brochures. Need dates to run booth there: Wed. evenings and Fridays and Saturdays around lunch time are best times; Bos- Wed. or Sat. Jayce will send monthly schedule; Dianne- Fridays or Saturdays. Dianne out 1st 2 weekends in Nov. Discussion for Oct. 31st: Dianne to hand out cards with candy at her house; booth at Bos's house for Halloween.
  - Chairman report: Brian Larimer: went to Scots and Brats festival; wasn't a lot of foot traffic but still good to have a presence.
  - Project Manager Report: Caitlin Broadwater: Squealin' on the Square: went well overall; good bit of interest; netted a few sign-ups. We have a total of 23-24 legit sign ups. Some who have signed up are not the right age.
  - Secretary: Dianne Belsom: discussed Brian speaking to Laurens County Tea Party- Nov 15th 7 pm at Laurens Library. Bos will see if we can get the Chronicle to cover us. Or we can do a paid ad. Try to highlight the differences between what we are doing vs other schools. Also discussed a letter to the editor: if someone writes it, send it to me and I will send to the papers.
  - Jack Roper- could call him and try to get coverage- TV show. Could do over Xmas break.
  - Fundraising: Jayce: Compiling lists of people that we know personally that may know people; names, emails, phone numbers to try to saturate community with our name, what we're doing. Jayce will make a spreadsheet; do a google sheet; focus now is enrollment later focus is donors. Will use list to mail people and then follow up after.

- Facilities update: Brian: roof has been taken care of. We have half the money needed to finish rest of windows. Dan Fehr will put the rest of them in and we can pay him when we get the money. Painting is still being done. Every room has been scraped and primed. Oct. 29th DOT coming.
